

MAE 3127: Fluids Lab

Ethics Group Assignment Rubrics

Rubrics for Ethics Final Poster

Criteria	0-points	0.5-points	1-points
Understanding/Judgement of the given scenario	Not judged	Not well judged or explained	Well-judged and explained
Background investigation/analysis of the scenario	None	Not detailed, not coherent	detailed, coherent
Identifying Ethical Concerns	Inaccurate	Mostly accurate, not well thought out	Well thought out
Suggested Resolutions of Problem	Not appropriate, unreliable or incomplete	Appropriate but resolutions may be questionable, not well thought out	Appropriate, reliable and well thought out
Poster Organization / Design	Poster organization interferes with explanation, facts are missing, and poster design is messy	For the most part poster is helpful in explaining the ethical concerns with only a few glaring problems or poster design is a bit messy.	Poster clearly explains the ethical concerns and the design is well structured

Rubrics for Ethics Final Presentation

Criteria	0-points	1-points	2-points
Clear introduction	Not clear, Inappropriate, not relevant	Clear, appropriate, relevant but not well thought, may be questionable	Clear, appropriate, relevant well thought
Transitions	Not smooth	Mostly smooth but had some issues with the flow	Smooth
Language use	Not simple and not clear	Simple and clear but most of the parts are not easy to understand	Simple and clear, easy to understand
Conclusion	Not appropriate	Appropriate but partially questionable	Appropriate
Coherent	lacks coherence	Coherent for the most part, but missing 1 or 2 important elements	Presentation is coherent, with clear language use
Content of Presentation	Language use and poster interferes with the scenario	For the most part poster and language use addresses the ethical concerns of given scenario with only a few glaring problems	Poster and language use are clearly addressing the ethical concerns of the given scenario

Draft: 3 points

Final Poster: 5 points

Presentation: 12 points

Total: 20 points